

Meeting of the Czech Statistical Council No 74 on 17 March 2023

Meeting Agenda

1 Priority tasks of the CZSO for 2023

- To modernise the statistical information system (SIS 5.0 programme)
- To complete the implementation of the development of the Basic Register of Legal and Natural Persons (also called Administrative Business Register) and its editing agenda information system
- To ensure preparation for the revision of the European standard classification of productive economic activities (NACE)
- To expand the areas of use of scanner data for creating statistics
- To modernise the system of business and environmental statistics
- To prepare a system of integrated annual demographic and census statistics
- To innovate data collection for field surveys in households
- To modernise structural wage statistics
- To ensure the implementation of a peer review of the National Statistical System
- To complete the development of IT infrastructure and management, including the introduction of quality measurement
- To complete the implementation of energy-saving projects of the reconstruction of office buildings of the CZSO
- To prepare and bring the Records Service into compliance with DEPO Act (Further Electronisation of Public Authorities' Procedures) and other related laws and regulations
- To implement the electronisation of selected support processes

Marek Rojíček, President of the CZSO

2 Oral information on the course and preliminary results of the peer review of compliance with principles of the European statistics Code of Practice on 6–10 March 2023

Petra Kuncová, Director of the Information Services Department of the CZSO

Miscellaneous