

CHARACTERISTICS OF THE REGION

The Olomoucký Region is located in the central part of Moravia and extends also to its northern part. As for the territory administration it forms together with the Zlínský Region the cohesion region of Central Moravia (NUTS 2). It consists of five districts (Jeseník, Olomouc, Prostějov, Přerov and Šumperk). On 1 January 2005, 3 municipalities from the Moravskoslezský Region were attached to the Olomoucký Region. On the territory of the Olomoucký Region the following were established: 13 administrative districts of municipalities with extended powers and 20 administrative districts of municipalities with authorized municipal authority. The Olomoucký Region borders in the north with Poland, in the east it borders with the Moravskoslezský Region, in the south with the Zlínský Region and the Jihomoravský Region and in the west with the Pardubický Region.

As for geography, the Region is divided to the northern mountainous part (the Jeseníky mountains with the highest point Praděd, altitude 1 491 m), while the southern part of the Region consists of the Haná lowland. The Morava River flows through the Region's territory; on its water level near to Kojetín in the Přerov District the lowest point of the Region lies (altitude 190 m). The Olomoucký Region offers a great variety of natural points of interest. Many tourists visit the Protected landscape area of the Jeseníky mountains with the largest Moravian peatbog Rejvíz and High Waterfall (Vysoký vodopád), which is 45 m high, water reservoir and the Dlouhé Stráně power plant on the top of a hill, and other scenic places. Interesting are also floodplain forests in the Litovelské Pomoraví protected landscape area with many endangered plant and animal species. There are also many caves in the Olomoucký Region: Javoříčko Caves (Javoříčské jeskyně), Mladeč Caves (Mladečské jeskyně) and Zbrašov Aragonite Caves (Zbrašovské jeskyně).

As at 31 December 2018, the total area of the Region amounted to 5 271.52 sq km (i.e. 6.7% of the entire area of the Czech Republic). The share of arable land is decreasing every year (38.8%) and that of non-agricultural land is increasing (47.4%).

The population of the Olomoucký Region lives in 402 municipalities of which 30 have the status of town. 56.0% of the population is urban population. The statutory town of Olomouc is the Region's capital; it had 100 523 inhabitants as at 31 December 2018. Most of the Region's population is supplied with water from public water supply systems (92.8%) and live in houses connected to the public sewerage systems (85.3% of the population). Specific emission values of main pollutants into air do not reach the average of the CR; therefore, the Region's environment can be considered to be less damaged. Mountain areas and foothills have excellent air quality and are important sources of drinking water.

The population of the Olomoucký Region totalled 632 492 inhabitants as at 31 December 2018. With its population density (120.0 inhabitants per square kilometre) the Region is close to the national average (135.0). There are, of course, differences within the Region: the lowest population density is in the Jeseník District (53.3 persons per sq km) and the Šumperk District (91.9 persons per sq km). In 2018 less children were born than persons died in the Region (6 699 live born children and 6 952 deaths). The share of children aged 0–14 years is low (15.6% of the total population as at 31 December 2018) and the share of the population aged 65+ years is increasing (20.2%); therefore, the average age of the population is increasing (42.8 years as at 31 December 2018). The share of children born out of marriage didn't change (49.8% in 2018). The number of interruptions is decreasing, year-on-year (983 in 2018). The number of marriages is slightly increasing (3 204 in 2018) and the number of divorces is decreasing (1 417 in 2018); diseases of the circulatory system remain the most often cause of death (45.5% of deaths in 2018).

The Czech Statistical Office has been carrying out labour force sample surveys already for many years in the households of respondents. According to this survey, the Olomoucký Region had 319.8 thousand economically active population aged 15+ years in 2018, of which 311.6 thousand were employed and 8.2 thousand unemployed. Namely due to the different survey methodology, the general unemployment rate (ILO) was 2.6%. It was lower than the share of unemployed persons as at 31 December 2018, which reached 3.4% according to the register of the Ministry of Labour and Social Affairs. In the end of 2018, 14 801 applicants kept in the labour office register were seeking a job.

The total expenditure on state social support benefits reached CZK 2 019 million in the Region in 2018 (5.7% of the total amount drawn from accounts of the state social support benefits for the entire CR). 177 291 people were receiving pensions in December 2018; of them, 149 421 were recipients of old-age pensions with the average monthly pension of CZK 12 063 (single pension). Care of patients of the top quality level is provided mostly in the teaching hospital in Olomouc, which is equipped with the most modern medical technology and has a large scientific and training background. Health care is provided also in many spa establishments that are scattered around the Region; well known are, for example, spas in Jeseník, Velké Losiny, Teplice nad Bečvou, Slatinice, Skalka, etc.

The network of school establishments consists of 387 nursery schools, 296 basic schools, 19 grammar schools, 76 programmes of vocational training at secondary schools, 8 higher professional schools, and 1 conservatoire. The second oldest university in the Czech Republic - the Palacký University in Olomouc (Univerzita Palackého) is a centre of education. Less than 20 000 students study at its faculties: Faculty of Science, Faculty of Education, Faculty of Medicine and Dentistry, Faculty of Arts, Faculty of Law, Sts Cyril and Methodius Faculty of Theology, Faculty of Physical Culture, and Faculty of Health Sciences.

As for economy, the Olomoucký Region is an industrial area with developed services. Economy of the districts of Haná is more stable and diverse enough; however, the Jeseník District and northern part of the Šumperk District due to their position, transport accessibility, and disturbance of social and economic life after the Second World War (displacement of German population) belong to economically weaker areas. The gross domestic product of the Olomoucký Region amounted to 4.7% of the total GDP of the CR in 2018, which is only 78.4% per capita of the national average. The average gross monthly wage of employees in businesses that have their seat of business in the Region reached CZK 28 646 (per FTE, in 2018, preliminary data).

Southern and central parts of the Region belong to areas with the most fertile land. Average yields of grown crops - spring barley, winter wheat, and industrial sugar beet - reach the highest amounts of the entire CR.

Many traditional industrial enterprises are doing their business in the Olomoucký Region. Agricultural production is followed by many food enterprises; developed are: manufacture of machinery, of electrical and optical equipment, of fabricated metal products, of transport equipment, and many others. The Olomoucký Region belongs to regions with the smallest number of accommodation establishments. As at 31 December 2018, accommodation services were provided by 483 collective accommodation establishments, which are placed primarily in the Jeseník District and the Šumperk District that are visited by tourists. The Region offers many establishments to entertain tourists. In addition to many natural beauties there is also a lot of historical monuments such as castles (Bouzov, Helfštýn, Šternberk), chateaux (Úsov, Tovačov, Velké Losiny, Jánský Vrch, Náměšť na Hané), and tens of museums and galleries. Especially the regional city of Olomouc with the second largest urban conservation area (which preserves a large set of buildings that are important for their historical, architectonic or artistic value and are located on a preserved medieval pattern of the town) is visited. The most important monument in Olomouc is a baroque Column of the Holy Trinity on the central square, which was inscribed on the UNESCO's World Heritage List in 2000. Olomouc has also many churches; in its large parks, flower and plant exhibitions take place (Flora Olomouc international flower exhibition). Near to Olomouc, there is a well-known Pilgrimage Church of the Visitation of the Virgin Mary (Basilica Minor) on Svatý Kopeček (the Holy Hill) and a zoological garden not far from it. Tens of ethnographic and dance groups take care of preservation of folkways at Haná; folklore shows and festivals are organised in Náměšť na Hané, Prostějov, Kojetín, and other places of the Region. There are also many opportunities to go in for sports in the Olomoucký Region. Already 2 700 km of cycle tracks were marked out; for water sports many modern swimming pools and natural open-air pools can be used. In the towns of Prostějov and Přerov one can find well-known tennis centres. Many visitors are attracted to hill-climb races at Ecce Homo in Šternberk. Football and ice hockey matches can be watched at well-equipped playgrounds and ice arenas all over the Region. For winter sports, many downhill and cross-country courses are prepared in the Jeseníky mountains in the following well-known areas: Červenohorské sedlo, Petřikov, Ostružná, Ramzová, and many others.

The Olomoucký Region is a region with rich history, varied and colourful nature, many cultural, sports, and recreational opportunities. The Region's economy focuses on traditional agriculture, processing industry, and services. Conditions for further development of the Region are its suitable position, transport accessibility, developed infrastructure, enough qualified labour force and entry of foreign investors. Many long-term strategic plans being realised, the economic situation of the Olomoucký Region gradually improves and the growing tendency is to continue also in the following years.
